

You Can Be Mine

Words: Kim Boyce

Music: George Cocchini

"On the same way, any of you who does not give up everything he has cannot be my disciple."

Luke 14:33 N27

If you can cry
Knowing that there is comfort
If you can stand
Through the hardest times
Oh, if instead of falling
You will run the longest mile

If you can love
Beyond the pain and the feeling
If you'll forgive
When it's hurting you
Oh, if you'll show the mercy,
The mercy shown to you

CHORUS:

If you will feed the hungry ones
And if you lead the blind
Then you can be Mine
You can be Mine
If you befriend the lonely ones
And if you'll love for all time
You can be Mine
Then you can be Mine

If you'll deny
Just being happy
If you'll lose your life
And know it's all to gain
Oh, if instead of wanting riches
You would give them all away

(REPEAT CHORUS)

Little ones are crying
Bigger ones are dying
Let them see My love in you

(REPEAT CHORUS)

Arranged by George Cocchini

Keyboards and Bass: John Schreiner